

PENNSBURY DRAMA PARENTS SCHOLARSHIP

Each year, the Pennsbury Drama Parents recognize, in the form of a scholarship, those Seniors who will continue pursuing their passion for theater in college. If you intend to major (or minor) in some form of theatrical arts in college and would like to be considered for the PDP scholarship, please submit this form along with supporting documentation from your college/university indicating your intended area of study in theater.

NAME:

COLLEGE:

INTENDED MAJOR OR MINOR:

On a separate sheet and in essay form, please answer the questions below. In addition, please provide a resume representing your theatrical involvement over the past four years of high school.

How will your study of theatre contribute to your immediate or long range career plans?

Pick a theatrical experience from your own life and explain how it has influenced your future theatre plans.

Submit completed forms to Mr. South either in person or by email – msouth@pennsburysd.org

All applications due by midnight on April 14th, 2019